Hints for the month:

With Venus and Mercury trailing together you can watch them in the skies and feel the effects as they connect with outer planets. Grace and communications go together. Neptune and Chiron's move into Pisces brings cosmic consciousness and we all feel it. Mercury turns retrograde again this month and also into December messing up all our best laid plans - wait until mid December. And the eclipse season begins again with the first solar eclipse in Sagittarius on the 25th. The next one is a lunar eclipse on 10th December at midnight. In Sagittarius it touches on world governments and religious issues. The month finishes with Venus moving into the practical Capricorn and squaring Arian Uranus.
